BOARDERS WANTED at 903 Fifth avenue, South, residence of Mrs. John Harding. Good comfortable rooms and board.

Ky. Mr. N. N. Reynolds, Grand Lecturer of Court of Calanthe, was here last Friday. Mrs. Addie Caldwell is sick. Mrs. Van, the wife of Rev. R. Van, of Waverly, brought her baby to Dickson and had it treated by Dr. Miles. Rev. J. F. Dean is planning a big revival after Easter. Rev. E. C. Hillsman is sick.

UNA NOTES.

Mr. Percy Davis, aged 21, an employee at State Hospital for Insane, died at his residence on Ezell Lane April 4th after a brief illness of only a few weeks. Prayers were held from the residence on April 5th, with interment at Greenwood Cemetery. Mrs. M. L. Foxall, accompanied by Rev. Foxall, was here from Canaan, Tenn., on account of the death of her brother, Mr. Percy Davis. Rev. Tyree White is conducting a series of meetings for Rev. J. B. Foxall at Canaan. Mr. J. Ellis is seriously ill. A Spring rally is planned for at Solomon Chapel on the second Sunday in May. Brother Allen Searcy, who has been feeble for more than five weeks, is rapidly improving.

GODWIN NOTES.

The past week has been one of constant rain, retarding farming. Mr. Vanns Nevels, aged 54, died Saturday night, April 1st, leaving a wife, three sons, two daughters and a host of friends. His son, Albert Nevels, arrived Monday morning, April 3rd. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. C. C. Sholar. Mr. Henry Medley arrived from St. Louis Monday, April 3rd, and will be here until the 20th. Mr. Elijah Foster left Tuesday for St. Louis. Mrs. Leana Green has been very ill but is improving. Mrs. Susie Horting is better after a long spell of lagrippe. Mrs. Jeanie Horting is better after ten months' illness. As small a place as Goodwin is, we are proud of a grocery run by a colored man—W. M. Medley. It is very well patronized by our people and is an indication of what can be accomplished by our people where an effort is made. Miss Virginia Foster gave a party in honor of her brother, Elijah Foster. Mr. Jasper Johnson is very ill.

CLIFTON NOTES.

Rev. A. Phillips, of the M. E. Church, preached an able sermon at his church Sunday at 11 a. m. Text, "These Things Are Against Me." At the conclusion Rev. W. J. Young prayed a soul-stirring prayer. Prof. J. E. West and Miss M. B. Mayberry took the collection. Brother N. C. Jackson and family moved back to his house after being away about 3 or 4 weeks on account of the smallpox. Mrs. Malissa Gwynn is quite sick with but very little hope of recovery. Mr. Corn Roberson, who came here from Paducah, Ky., a few weeks ago with smallpox, was released last Sunday by the health doctor. He took a tow boat Monday on his way to Florence, Ala., where he fell overboard and drowned. He has not been found. Dr. D. W. Binford left for Decaturville Monday to preach a special sermon for the Eastern Star Society on the 10th inst. Rev. W. J. Young, the acting pastor, until his return, preached Sunday night from Matt. 5:25. Mrs. Chaney Morris spent the day with her sister, Bettie Spears, Sunday. Mrs. Birda McAfee gave a dinner on Saturday evening. The guests were Prof. J. E. West, Mrs. John Churchwell, Jessie Churchwell, A. Webb, Wm. Rutledge, Misses Rocky Jobe, Gately Maberry and Erba Poynter. A four-course menu was served. There have been from 150 to 200 cases of measles in and about here among both white and colored. Only one died. He was colored. Many of the corn crops will have to be replanted on account of the recent big rains. The river is swelling and the backwaters are at the back doors till the people have to move out and hunt higher ground. Brother Dallis Chapple was baptized Sunday night by Rev. A. Phillips.

LEBANON NOTES.

Big gala week will be held in Lebanon, Tenn., May 1-6 among the colored people. This will be one of the greatest events that has ever been introduced to the colored people of this city. Monday, the grand opening day an industrial parade will take place at 2 o'clock p. m. Every Negro will close his business to take a part in the parade, which will form on Gay street in front of the Southern Hotel and march to the park, where we will expect to have Dr. R. F. Boyd and Dr. J. D. Fowler, of Nashville, Tenn., assisted by Dr. Jos. Turner and others of this city, deliver addresses upon Negro enterprises and open the gala week for the pleasure of every one. This great event is under the auspices of the Lebanon Band, with Prof. N. C. Davis as music director and general manager of this occasion.

OAKLAND NOTES.

Mr. Charles Cox died Monday morning, April 10th, at 1 o'clock. He was well thought of by all who knew him. His cheerful disposition made most people love to be in his company. He was an active member in the Oakland C. M. E. Church, and even after he was stricken by the fatal disease paralysis last August, he was always found in church when able to walk. He leaves behind him a wife several children and a host of friends. The funeral services were held at the church Tuesday at 2 o'clock. Rev. W. A. Rodgers officiated. Sometime ago it was hinted that the wedding bells would ring out in West Oakland in the near future. On March the 22nd Mr. Lesley Johnson, a worthy young man of West Oakland, left for Courtland, Ala., where he arrived on Thursday the 23rd, and was wedded to Miss Virginia Caldwell. They returned Friday, March 24th, to the home of the groom. Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Johnson gave the happy couple a unique reception. Many friends of the couple were present. The bride was tastefully dressed as well as the groom. They are now at home to their friends. The Oakland public school children are filled with enthusiasm over their preparations for the concert which will be given at the church on Friday, the 28th inst. The teacher, Miss Cora B. Flippin, is making strenuous efforts to have the program unique. On Tuesday night, the 21st inst., Mrs. A. T. Johnson, teacher at the Johnson's school, will have her concert. We are sure it will be a great success. Sunday was a day of enjoyment for the young people. Couple after couple could be seen riding and driving in the refreshing air and sunshine. Mr. Noble Owens, Mr. Ed. Williams, Mr. Harvey Cleaves, Mr. Wm. Porter, Mr. Thomas H. Owens, Dr. M. V. Umble were looking like Easter so soon. And Misses Allie Mai Grandberry, Helen E. Walton, Parlee Williams, Ether B. Howell and Lula Washington looked like Easter lilies. Mr. N. H. Owens has been all smiles since he returned from the Bluff City where he spent three days. I think everything went well with him there.

DAYTON NOTES.

Sunday was a gay day among the churches. Rev. A. W. Stripling preached at the Mount Zion Baptist Church. Rev. J. F. Thornton and Rev. John Moore and James Franklin visited Mr. Jas. Keith on Hill City Sunday in the afternoon. The Ladies Sewing Circle met Monday, April the 9th on College Hill. Mrs. Gertrude Cooley who is with her sister and brother, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Lee of Morgantown is reported very sick. Mrs. Sallie, the sister of Mr. George Modena of Dallas, Texas is in the city. She is stopping with Mrs. Aliza Martin on Maple St., while here. Mr. George Brooks of Chattanooga is visiting his mother-in-law, Mrs. Eliza Smart, of College Hill. Mr. W. F. Roberts, who has been living in Brick Block has moved to Fourth Avenue and occupies a portion of Prof. C. H. Powells' dwelling. Mrs. Lucinda Coleman is reported sick in South Dayton. Mr. Eli Brown of Morgan Town made a business trip to Pikeville last week. Mrs. Phebe Organ, Mrs. L. E. Stephens, Mrs. S. A. Broyles, Mrs. Tennie Shelton, Mrs. G. W. Cane were all in attendance at a meeting at Mrs. Nannie Haynes Monday.

COLUMBIA NOTES.

Mr. Henry Nicholson of Chicago is was called here by the serious illness of his mother, Mrs. Bettie Nicholson, of Hill street. Mrs. Nicholson died April 9th, her funeral was from St. Paul A. M. E. Church. Rev. Green Thomson of Spring Hill officiating. Mrs. Pearl McAdams will leave soon for a visit to Shelbyville while there she will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Smith. Miss Etta McDonald and Mr. Horace Morton were quietly married at the home of Mr. William Brown on 11th St., Rev. W. H. Pote officiated. Little Agnes Bradshaw, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Bradshaw is improving after a serious spell of sickness. Mrs. Lucy Dickerson of Nashville was here last Sunday to attend the funeral of her grand-daughter. Mrs. Henrietta Dickerson has returned from an extended stay in Nashville. A drama "My Awful Aunt," was well rendered at St. Paul Monday night the 10th under the management of Mrs. Logue Harris. Palm Sunday was observed by the "Mason Sister, Ariston Chapter No. — in Mt. Lebanon Baptist Church. Rev. Calvin Norman preached the annual sermon. Mrs. Rankin Doyle has returned from Nashville, where she was called to the bedside of her cousin, Miss Sadie Mai Patton. Mr. Aaron Patton and Misses Mary Sue Rainey and Alice Patton have gone to Nashville to see Miss Sadie Mai Patton, who is quite ill at the home of her cousin, Mrs. Andrew Jackson. Mr. Dale Nicholson and Miss Elnora Harris were quietly married a few days ago.

CULLEOKA NOTES.

Miss Willie Baxter, Thomas Ford and Mrs. Ida Reynolds spent Sunday in Columbia. Mr. M. D. Dean was in Columbia last Monday. While there he selected a nice bookcase for the Culleoka public school. The County Superintendent donated $5.00 to the Culleoka public school on the bookcase. Mr. M. D. Dean supplemented $4.50, making the total cost of the bookcase $9.50. The many readers of the library were happy when they entered the A. M. E. Church last Wednesday evening and saw the beautiful bookcase with its many interesting volumes therein. Mr. M. D. Dean preached quite an interesting sermon Sunday evening. It was followed by an old-fashioned class-meeting. The members of the A. M. E. Sunday-school met Monday evening for a rehearsal. Miss Mattie Moore, after spending a fortnight with relatives and friends at Lynnville, Tenn., has returned. Mr. Thos. Ford, of Earlington, Ky., is here visiting relatives and friends. Mrs. Anderson Hughes and son went to Perry's Hill Sunday to visit relatives there. Mrs. Beulah Nilon, of Earlington, Ky., is here visiting friends. Mr. Buford Dean, of Louisville, Ky., is here with his father, Mr. Buford Dean, who has been quite ill recently. Rev. M. C. Skillern was here on business last Monday. Mrs. Lydia Pruitt has been quite ill all the week. Mr. Roy Fitzpatrick, a very prominent young man of this town, was shot Saturday night between 10 and 11 o'clock while passing the old post office corner. The bullet entered his left femur and remained there until it was removed by Drs. Smiser and Moore on Sunday afternoon about three o'clock. The party that did the shooting is unknown at this writing, but every effort is being made to save the wounded man. Mr. Bennie Young was the guest of Miss Birdie E. Hunt Friday evening. There will be a grand ice cream reception at the A. M. E. Church Friday evening, also a shirt-waist entertainment Saturday evening. Mr. Will Reed and Mr. Clifford Childs were selected as waiters for Friday evening. Mrs. Anna Baxter, after spending a fortnight with her children in Nashville, has returned.
